It will be seen from the Treasurer's report that the net income during the past year has been $21,352.67.

The expenses of carrying on the Home have been $16,089.21, while the outside beneficiaries have received $6,495.50, showing that the expenditures for the year have exceeded the income $1,232.04.

Included in the income is the sum of $1,000, received from Charles P. Curtis, as Trustee of the estate of Elisha V. Ashton, being slightly in excess of the amount received from this source in 1893.

With the exception of the renovation of the walls and ceilings of the main halls of the Home, no unusual repairs have been made during the past year.

The following legacies and donations have been received during the year: —

From John D. Bryant, Otto Kramer, and Daniel P. Wise, executors of the estate of Frederick E. Weber, . . .	$500.00
From Henry G. Denny, executor of the estate of Frederick William Everett,	1,000.00
From Charles T. Means, executor of the estate of William G. Means,	2,000.00
From George McConnell and Henry H. Sprague, executors of the estate of Elizabeth W. Gay, final payment (total legacy, $7,931.19),	231.19
From "J. R.," a donation,	5.00
From Joseph H. Curtis, executor of the estate of Mary A. Blood,	2,000.00
From Horace E. Ware, R. C. Humphreys, and E. B. Townsend, executors of the estate of E. P. Tileston,	30.31
From Godfrey Morse, executor of the estate of Leopold Morse,	100.00
From Edward A. Bangs, executor of the estate of Cornelia J. Thomas,	2,500.00
From George Lamb, executor of the estate of Benjamin Humphrey,	50,000.00
	$58,366.50

Benjamin Humphrey, whose legacy has lately been received, was a Boston boy, the son of an old Boston merchant. He was for many years an invalid, but always interested in the Home, for many years making a liberal donation for its support. He has now become the largest contributor to its funds. Only the income from this legacy is to be used for the needs of the Home.

Religious services have been held at the Home on the last Sunday of each month except during the summer, and have been conducted by the following clergymen: Rev. Robert Graham, Rev. D. W. Waldron, Rev. James Reed, Rev. Loren B. Macdonald, Rev.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Joy Mason, music for the religious and funeral services has been supplied by the members of the Shawmut Universalist Church and others, aided by Rev. Charles R. Tenney. The Directors at this time desire to express to her and her friends their obligations for these voluntary services.

The Thanksgiving dinner was, as usual, supplied by the income of the fund left for this purpose by the late Peter C. Brooks.

As has been their custom for many years, Messrs. Sturtevant & Haley donated the poultry for the Christmas dinner.

Mr. F. E. Pond, business manager of the Boston Theatre, and Mr. H. B. Harris, of the Columbia Theatre, have generously extended invitations for matinée performances at their respective theatres.

The City Mission Fresh Air Fund, through the Rev. D. W. Waldron, kindly gave entertainment at the Old Folks' Party in Franklin Park to forty-one of the inmates.

We are indebted to Mr. W. A. Twombly for many generous gifts of cut flowers, and to one of our Directors for his contribution of the Century, Harper's, and Scribner's magazines.

As in previous years, the Home has been the recipient of many packages of books, magazines, and clothing from unknown donors, to whom the Directors in this way desire to express their obligation.

Musical and literary entertainments given at the Home by the Boylston Club, by friends from the Young Women's Christian Association, and by the Winthrop Club, have been a source of much gratification to the inmates.

The proprietors of the Christian Leader, the Missionary Herald, Our Dumb Animals, Boston Evening Transcript, and Zion's Herald have furnished their respective publications gratuitously during the year.

Under the efficient management of our Superintendent, Miss Malloy, and the skilful professional care of our physician, Dr. John Homans, 2d, the comfort and health of the inmates of the Home have been maintained and fostered.

Finally, to quote from an earlier report,—which seems almost prophetic,—“It is believed that it would not be easy to name an institution which has yielded to its friends and supporters a larger return in the positive comfort of those whose necessities appeal to our Christian love.”

During the thirty-four years of its existence there has been expended in maintaining the Home, $373,501.71; outside beneficiary aid, $131,042.74; a total of $504,544.45,—giving aid, comfort, and happiness in their declining years, to hundreds of worthy men “whose hands have formerly administered to the wants of many, whose fidelity to humanity has relieved the widowed and the fatherless, and who, in their long and well-spent life, have endeavored to do their duty to God and to man.”

CHARLES W. JONES,
JOSEPH SAWYER,
JOEL GOLDTHWAIT,
Committee.

BOSTON, January 14, 1895.

At the annual meeting of the Corporation the following memorial was unanimously adopted: —

“ Mr. Charles S. Kendall having died since our last meeting, we desire to acknowledge the services of our late associate, while his health permitted, during the thirteen years he has been a member of the Board of Directors, and to tender to his family our respectful sympathy in their loss.”

They shall have the power to enter into and bind the Corporation by such contracts as they may deem advantageous. They may appoint all proper and necessary officers, assistants, and servants for the management and care of the Home and beneficiaries, with such salaries and allowances as they may from time to time fix and determine, and may remove the same at pleasure; and make all such rules and regulations for their own government, and for the government of such officers, assistants, and servants, for the admission, confirmation, discharge, removal, control, and care of inmates, and the well ordering and conducting of the respective departments of the Home as to them may seem proper and expedient: provided, however, that the said rules and regulations may be altered or amended by the Corporation at their Annual Meeting or at any legal meeting especially called for the purpose. They shall manage, invest, and dispose of the property of the Corporation, and shall receive and collect donations and bequests; but no sale or transfer of any of the property, and no payment

They shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall be laid before the Directors at their quarterly meetings. They shall make or authorize all purchases for the Home, and shall examine and approve all bills before payment by the Treasurer.

Committee on Admission.

ART. VI. The Committee on Admission shall visit or confer with each applicant for admission or relief, inquire into his circumstances and character, and make a full report of all the material facts in each case. The Directors alone shall decide upon the admission or relief of applicants. The Committee shall keep a register, in which shall be entered the names of applicants, their respective ages, place of birth and residence, by whom recommended, date of application, the decision of the Directors thereon, and such other facts as they may deem important; and they shall assign to inmates their rooms.

ART. VII. The Finance Committee shall have the general charge and direction of all matters connected with the money, mortgages, and other securities belonging to the Home, and shall direct the Treasurer in the disposition of the same.

Committee on Religious Services.

ART. VIII. The Committee on Religious Services shall, as often as practicable, supply the Home with preaching on Sundays. They shall make such regulations in regard to the same and to other religious services as they may deem expedient.

Superintendent.

ART. IX. The Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the house, and shall strictly obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the Directors. Order, neatness, and good conduct must prevail throughout the Home.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates. At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee, the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered, with the name of the donor, in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home. Any person admitted to the Home, who does not avail himself of the privilege within thirty days from the date of his admission, may, at the option of the Executive Committee, forfeit the right to enter the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom a reasonable amount for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven one-half o'clock; dinner at one o'clock; supper at six o'clock.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates, at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation. No article of food or drink, except as provided in the diet list or ordered by the Physician, shall be used in the house, unless by permission of the Superintendent.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

9. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

10. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician, when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

11. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

12. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

13. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants or servants. If they have cause for complaint, they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to the Executive Committee.

14. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

15. No inmate or person employed in the house will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock P.M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.

16. The Superintendent must see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished by ten o'clock at night.

17. Inmates should make it known to the Superintendent when they are going out.

18. Any one desiring to visit his friends must obtain leave of the Superintendent, whom he shall inform of the place where he intends to stay and the probable length of his visit. The time of making visits, as well as their frequency, is left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

19. The friends of inmates and the public generally may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock A.M. and from three to five P.M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

20. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same; and, if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee, to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

21. Inmates shall not engage in any employment or occupation except by the consent of the Executive Committee, and under their direction; and those earning money under such permission must pay the same to said Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of said Committee.

22. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.
